

With the support of our members, donors, sponsors, and funders the Nunavut Literacy Council:

- Promotes and supports public awareness
- Works at the territorial and national level to influence and support public policy development
- Conducts research into literacy and factors associated with literacy skill development

- Encourages, supports, and strengthens partnerships with stakeholders and members
- Provides training and professional development opportunities for adult educators and to groups and organizations involved in, or interested in developing literacy programs and services

- Develops bilingual resources and maintains a bilingual website
- Loans resources such as books, video tapes and training manuals from our Resource Centre
- Promotes and supports literacy through special events such as Nunavut Literacy Week
- Hosts and organizes the PGI Golf Tournament for Literacy in Nunavut
